

THE GALLERY SEPTEMBER OCTOBER 2018

Contact

The Gallery, 77 Cowcross Street London EC1M 6EL.

For further information on individual events, including any charges for admission, please contact the organisers direct. This programme is also published on our website, www.alanbaxter.co.uk

To enquire about booking the Gallery, contact Stephen Coley, Alan Baxter, 75 Cowcross Street, London, EC1M 6EL.

tel 020 7250 1555 email scoley@alanbaxter.co.uk

The entrance to The Gallery is at the end of the courtyard at 77 Cowcross Street.

Lectures & Seminars

Wednesday 5 September, 6.15pm

Lecture Urban Design Group

Details to be announced. For information go to www.udg.org.uk

Thursday 6 September, 6.30pm

Lecture Icomos-UK

ICOMOS-UK promotes the understanding of cultural heritage in the UK and worldwide. Lecture details to be advised. www.icomos-uk.org

Monday 10 September, 7.00pm

2018 World Monuments Watch – local action, global spotlight World Monuments Fund UK

The meeting will consider what has happened at the 2018 Watch sites a year after they were first added to the Watch. To book please call Sarah on 020 7251 8142 or email sarah@wmf.org.uk

Tuesday 11 September, 6.15pm

Walking and cycling strategies and design guidance: what's the point?

London Living Streets and Urban Design Group
Phil Jones talks about the importance and value of walking and cycling strategies, plans and guidance, how to produce high quality documents, the impact on urban design, and how campaigners and designers should engage. www.udg.org.uk

Wednesday 12 September, 6.00pm

War memorials Mausolea and Monuments Trust

With journalist and author Clive Aslet. For more information and to book go to www.mmtrust.org.uk/events/

Thursday 13 September, 6.30pm

Billy's Big Debate Sign Design Society

In a departure from the usual format. Billy Griffin will chair a multidisciplinary panel as it explores a current topic of industry-wide interest. www.signdesignsociety.co.uk

Monday 17 September, 6.45pm

The secret world of international accountancy – the scandal of the 'Big Four' Café Diplo

Author and journalist Richard Brooks explains how the 'big four' accountancy firms have developed into vast multinationals. www.mondediplofriends.org.uk

Tuesday 18 September, 7.00pm

Jørn Utzon Docomomo

Jørn Utzon's Sydney Opera House overshadowed a larger body of work of great importance for Modern architecture. Michael Asgaard Andersen discusses his diverse projects around the globe. Book at www.docomomo.uk

Tuesday 18 September, 7.00pm

Mauretania Ocean Liner Society Gallery 2

Cunard's first Mauretania set new standards for luxury and speed. With David Hutchings. Go to www.ocean-liner-society.com

Thursday 20 September, 6.30pm

London the Market: The life and times of Camden Lock market The London Society

As Camden Market is set to reinvent itself in 2019 Eric Reynolds explores the history of London's world famous Camden Market. Book at www.londonsociety.org.uk

Tuesday 25 September, 6.30pm

The Royal Academy of Arts ASCHB

A look at Julian Harrap's work at the RA. More information at www.aschb.org.uk

Wednesday 26 September, 6.30pm

Open meeting The London Forum

A presentation of common interest to those living and working in London. For more information go to www.londonforum.org.uk

Thursday 27 September, 6.00pm

Cycling to overcome adversity

Sustrans
Para-cyclist and Ironman Liz McTernan, Army veteran Jaco Van Gass, and former Royal Signals Sergeant Andrew Perrin explain how they have overcome injuries or physical challenges by pushing to the top of their physical discipline in cycling. Book at www.sustrans.org.uk

Saturday 29 September, 5.30pm

Double bill: Film making in North London and West End theatres that showed films

Cinema Theatre Association
Gerry Turvey on the north London pioneers in the early years of film making, and David Smith on theatres that adapted to the new world of film. For more information go to www.cinema-theatre.org.uk

Monday 1 October, 6.45pm

The future of social housing

Café Diplo
Anna Minton, author of 'Big Capital', talks about the crisis of social housing in the context of the impact of globally mobile capital on urban populations worldwide. www.mondediplofriends.org.uk

Tuesday 2 October, 6.30pm

One way ticket: the work of sculptor Rayner Hoff

Public Monument and Sculpture Association
Deborah Beck will explore Hoff's eventful life in the UK, and his meteoric rise in Sydney after 1923. Booking via Eventbrite. For more information contact office@pmsa.org.uk, tel. 020 7490 5001.

Monday 8 October, 7.00pm

Bandstands: London's pavilions for music, leisure and entertainment

London Parks and Gardens Trust
Bandstands' heyday coincided with the growth of public parks and the development of cast iron in the mid-19th century, combining fantasy architecture and popular music free to all. They are now enjoying a revival. With Paul Rabbitts. www.londongardenstrust.org

Tuesday 9 October, 7.00pm

Conserving Dudley Zoo

Docomomo
Conservation-based repairs have recently been carried out at Dudley Zoo. Stuart Tappin, the structural engineer for the project, and Jon Wright will describe the challenges of working with listed reinforced concrete and meerkats. Book at www.docomomo.uk

Wednesday 10 October, 5.45pm

Henry Ford's UK holiday in 1928

The Newcomen Society
Henry Ford established in Dearborn a massive technology museum to honour Thomas Edison. To fill it, he visited England and spent $10 million (ca. $1bn today) on rare engines, vehicles and buildings. David Perrett tells how he did it. www.newcomen.com

Thursday 11 October, 1.30pm

Electric vehicles - Infrastructure and Impact

London Living Streets and Urban Design Group
An afternoon seminar examining the impact Electric Vehicles could have on our towns and the infrastructure they require. www.udg.org.uk

Thursday 11 October, 6.30pm

Measuring design effectiveness

Sign Design Society
Good design is undoubtedly a good thing but clients can find it hard to justify spending the money. This talk looks at approaches to helping clients understand its value. www.signdesignsociety.co.uk

Saturday 13 October, 10.00am

Resurrecting the dead

Mausolea and Monuments Trust
This symposium discusses the maintenance and restoration of funerary architecture and sculpture. For more details and to book go to www.mmtrust.org.uk from August or email: fsands@soane.org.uk

Tuesday 16 October, 6.30pm

Technical debate: insulation

ASCHB
A discussion about insulation and the negative outcomes. More information at www.aschb.org.uk

Tuesday 16 October, 7.00pm

Union-Castle Line purserette

Ocean Liner Society Gallery 2

Ann Haynes tells how she became an officer in the British Merchant Navy. Go to www.ocean-liner-society.com

Wednesday 17 October, 6.15pm

Lessons from 2018 Urban Design study tours:

Stockholm & Abruzzi

Urban Design Group

Sebastian Loew, Brian Quinn and Alan Stones reflect on urban design practice in other countries. www.udg.org.uk

Thursday 18 October, 6.00pm

Book launch: Seashaken houses

Tom Nancollas
Seashaken Houses explores the rock lighthouses of Great Britain and Ireland, a series of remarkable towers built between 1811 and 1904 on desolate rock formations in the middle of the sea. For more information contact tnancollas@gmail.com

Wednesday 24 October, 3.00pm

Sustainable development or mini-America?

Transport for New Homes

Are new homes being built around sustainable transport or around the car? Hear recommendations from visits to more than 20 new developments. More information from jess.fitch@bettertransport.org.uk

Thursday 25 October, 6.30pm

C21 writers on C20 architects: Alison and Peter Smithson

Twentieth Century Society
A series of lectures by the authors of the series Twentieth Century Architects being published by Historic England with the C20 Society. In the first Mark Crinson talks about Alison and Peter Smithson. Book at www.c20society.org.uk or tel. 020 7250 3857

Monday 29 October, 6.45pm

Japan and the Asia Pacific

Café Diplo

Chris Hughes, of the LSE, on the political and economic situation in Japan and the challenges it faces. www.mondediplofriends.org.uk

Wednesday 31 October, 6:30pm

The Shetlander who mapped Jamaica

Friends of the Georgian Society of Jamaica

James Robertson (1753-1829) produced an incredibly detailed map of Jamaica which was highly praised at the time for its accuracy. Joanne Wishart, formerly of Shetland Museum and Archives, explores his life and career. Book via Eventbrite

Exhibition

Monday 24 September - Thursday 4 October

My Adventures in the Land of Opportunity

David Downes

David Downes is an autistic artist and Vice President of the National Autistic Society. His exceptional talent earned him a place at the Royal College of Art and has seen him commissioned by the BBC, Savoy and Goldman Sachs. Join him on a journey from London, across to the US where he now resides. Private view Monday 24 September, 6.00-8.30pm. Enquiries to Bethany.burton@nas.org.uk, tel. 020 7923 5777

